TED UNIVERSITY
UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP REGULATIONS

Objective
ARTICLE 1- (1) The objective of this regulation is to specify the rules and principles governing the scholarships given to TED University students in undergraduate programs.

Scope
ARTICLE 2-
This regulation consists of the provisions about the content, terms of application and continuation of scholarships given to TED University students in undergraduate program.

ÖSYS (Student Selection and Placement Examination) Quota Scholarship
ARTICLE 3-
1) Scholarships are granted to students according to Student Selection and Placement Examination criteria who are consequently admitted to the university with the status of scholarship student. The number of scholarships is determined by a quota. The types, context, terms of application and continuation of the scholarships are presented below.
2) Full scholarships are given to students according to criteria and quota. These students do not pay tuition fees. Among the students coming from provinces other than Ankara; all students who ranked among the first 3,000 in the language section or the first 30,000 in other sections have the right to benefit from accommodation in four-person rooms, including the breakfast and dinner, free of charge. Students who are admitted with full scholarship cannot receive any additional scholarship for accommodation if they wish to benefit from the student accommodation facilities. Those that apply for accommodation afterwards are provided accommodation if at all possible.
3) 75% scholarships are given to students who meet the 75% scholarship criteria and quota. These students do not pay 75% of the tuition fee.
4) 50% is given to students who meet the 50% scholarship criteria and quota. These students do not pay 50% of the tuition fee.
5) 25% is given to students who meet the 25% scholarship criteria and quota. These students do not pay 25% of the tuition fee.
6) Scholarships granted according to Student Selection and Placement Examination criteria and quota are valid for a maximum of 6 years for students who have to study at the English Language School, and a maximum of 5 years for those who begin directly with undergraduate studies.
7) Academic standing is not a prerequisite for the continuation of the scholarships.
8) Students who are placed again to the program that they have been already registered at TED University via ÖSYS (Student Selection and Placement Examination) or who are graduated from any other higher education institution can be enrolled under non-scholarship (paid) status.

Miscellaneous Provisions

ARTICLE 12-

1) The conditions mentioned below have to be met in order to apply for scholarships and the continuation of the scholarship status. Students who fail to fulfil these conditions lose their scholarship status. They can re-register as a non-scholarship (paid) student within the maximum duration of their study.

Conditions:
   a) Tuition fee must be paid (for the non-scholarship or partial scholarship status.)
   b) Course registration must be completed and advisor approval must be received.
   c) Course attendance conditions must be fulfilled.

2) a) The students who are subject to suspension for one or two semesters for the first time lose all the scholarship status awarded by TED University as defined in this regulation, except for the ÖSYS (Student Selection and Placement Examination) quota scholarship. Semesters spent on suspension are deducted from the maximum duration of ÖSYS scholarship and the maximum duration of their study. The students are obliged to reimburse the full share of their tuition fees for the semesters on suspension according to their ÖSYS quota scholarship. These payments cannot be counted towards the tuition fee payment for the subsequent semesters.

   b) The students who are subject to suspension for one or two semesters for the second time lose all the scholarship status awarded by TED University as defined in this regulation, including the ÖSYS (Student Selection and Placement Examination) quota scholarship.

   c) The students who are subject to any combination of warning or reprimand penalties, or suspension from one week to one month for three times lose all the scholarship status awarded by TED University as defined in this regulation, except for the ÖSYS (Student Selection and Placement Examination) quota scholarship.

3) Those who meet the conditions for more than one type of scholarship, benefit from the most extensive scholarship available (except the IB Scholarship, Scholar Scholarship and the Elementary Scholarship).

4) The summer school tuition fee may vary according to the Student Selection and Placement Examination or the International Student Scholarship quota status of the student and it is determined by the University Administrative Board.
5) Scholarships are valid for the credit limits determined by the Senate at the beginning of the semester. Students who follow additional courses pay an additional tuition fee for a course load which exceeds these credit limits regardless of their scholarship status.

6) Students who follow a double major program or a minor degree program have to pay additional tuition fees for course loads which exceed credit limits determined by the Senate at the beginning of the semester regardless of their scholarship status. Students who have a grade point average of minimum 2.80/4.00 in their double major program or minor degree program at the end of the second semester are automatically entitled to an additional tuition fee scholarship, in which the tuition fees they have paid are reimbursed. They do not pay an additional tuition fee during the double major program or minor degree program.

7) If the student graduates from his/her major degree program, Student Selection and Placement Examination, and International Student quota scholarships are prolonged for one semester for students who follow a minor degree program and for two semesters for those who follow a double major program. During this period the students cannot benefit from other types of scholarships. The non-registered semesters after graduation from major degree program are reduced from the scholarship periods of the Student Selection and Placement Examination, and International Student quota.

8) Students who are on leave of absence for a semester are considered to have benefited from his/her scholarship rights. However, in the case of compelling reasons, the scholarship status is evaluated by the University Administrative Board.

9) a) Former scholarship students who register through internal lateral transfer to programs of Architecture and Psychology within the institution can register to their new programs only in non-scholarship (paid) status.

b) Scholarship status of students who have registered through internal lateral transfer is determined by the scholarship rate equivalent to the ÖSYS (University Selection and Placement Exam) score of the respective program in the year of their entry. Remaining scholarship time is calculated via extracting the time spent in education from the total scholarship period.

10) Regulations of scholarship reduction of the semesters spent in the previous institution of Students who registered through lateral transfer are defined by the University Senate.
