SECTION TWO

Student Societies Commission

Formation of the Commission

ARTICLE 5- (1) The Commission consists of three members appointed by the Rector, one of which is designated as the chairperson, administrative unit executive in charge, a representative elected among chairpersons of the student societies by themselves following the electoral term every year and a representative, who is a member of the Student Council and elected by the council members. The commission has to be approved by the UAB.

(2) Term of office of commission members is two years. Members can be reappointed when their term of office has expired. Term of office of Student Societies Representative is one year. Member who is appointed as a substitute for an existing member who had to leave completes the term of office of the substituted member.

(3) When the agenda dictates so (in terms of discipline related or confidential issues), the chairman of the commission may ask the representatives of student societies and of the Student Council not to attend the meeting.

(4) Coordination and clerkship affairs of the commission are carried out by the administrative unit in charge.

Duties of the Student Societies Commission

ARTICLE 6- (1) The Student Societies Commission, which is fully authorized for the primary evaluation of the foundation of student societies in TED University, and for their functioning and inspection, performs the following duties:

a) To evaluate applications for the foundation of societies in accordance with this regulation and advise the UAB thereof.
b) To evaluate and inspect the activity reports of the societies and assessments by the society counselors in line with the mission, vision, values and principles of TED University and in accordance with the provisions of this regulation.

c) To convene the society counselors and administrative boards of the existing societies when needed.

e) To resolve the applications submitted by the society inspection committees with the approval of society counselors when needed and to notify the societies about the results thereof.

g) To make a decision whether to issue a warning to societies failing to observe the provisions of this regulation, or to advise the UAB for the termination of their functioning if deemed necessary.

SECTION THREE

Society Counseling

Duties and Responsibilities of Society Counselors

ARTICLE 7- (1) Societies are obliged to designate a society counselor at the foundation phase.

(2) Society counselors are selected among TED University tenured faculty members or lecturers.

(3) Society counselors who wish to quit for any reason should apply to the Commission with a written notice.

(4) The society should refer a proposal for a new counselor to the related administrative unit in fifteen days following the written notification submitted to the Commission upon the departure of existing Society Counselor. In case a proposal was not received in the given time, the Commission appoints a new counselor to the related society in fifteen days.

(5) Societies should receive the written approval of their Society Counselor before conducting any type of activity. All the activities should be conducted under the supervision of the related society counselor.

(6) Society counselor status of faculty members who had to go outside the university on an assignment during a semester or for a longer period of time is automatically suspended and the Commission should be notified thereof. In that case, a substitute faculty member should be appointed only as a Temporary Society Counselor for the period of absence of the actual counselor with the approval of the Chairperson of the Commission based on the reference given by the Administrative Board.

(7) Tenured faculty members of the university may function as counselor for maximum two societies.

(8) Term of office of the Society Counselor expires with the subsequent formation of the Society Administrative Board. Society Counselor may be reappointed following the first year of duty with the approval of the Commission based on the reference given by the Society Administrative Board.
SECTION FOUR

(2) Admission of a student as a member is finalized with being enrolled on Members’ Register by the approval of Society Counsel upon decision of the Society Administrative Board following the student’s request to join by signing their name on the members list.

(3) Societies cannot impose any restriction or classification about membership other than those specified in this regulation.

(4) Student’s membership is also terminated upon deregistration from university in cases other than graduation.

(5) Students may unsubscribe from the society membership any time they wish, following the same procedures as being subscribed.

(6) Procedures on requests for dismissal of members are carried out by Society Supervisory Boards.

(7) Only the general assemblies of societies are authorized to take dismissal decisions.

(8) Dismissed members may file a written appeal to the Societies Commission. The Commission scrutinizes the grounds of the verdict and reaches the final decision with absolute majority.
Bodies of the Society

ARTICLE 13- (1) Bodies of the society are as follows;

a) General Assembly of the Society
b) Society Administrative Board
c) Society Supervisory Board

(2) General Assembly, Administrative and Supervisory Boards are mandatory bodies of societies. Apart from these, societies may found additional sub-committees and/or commissions in order to achieve the purposes of the society. Formation, election, and operation criteria of these sub-committees and/or commissions should be specified in the Minute Book of the Society as well as their tasks, duties and capacities.

General Assembly of the Society

ARTICLE 14- (1) It is the highest decision making body and it contains all registered members of the society.

(2) Society General Assemblies are obliged to hold an ordinary meeting at least twice in an Academic Year with the agenda of membership procedures and annual Activity Plan in Fall Semester and with the agenda of Elections and Annual Activity Report in Spring Semester.

(3) General Assembly is inaugurated by the Chairperson of Administrative Board, otherwise by the eldest member of the society in the absence of a chairperson. The Assembly starts to function upon election of the Council Board to preside the meeting consisting of a chairperson and two clerks.

(4) A quorum is required to hold an assembly. If quorum is not reached, at the second meeting this condition is not sought, decisions are taken with absolute majority of the attendees. In cases when the ballot results are tied, Administrative Board Chairperson shall have a casting vote, with the exception of Administrative Board elections, in which case the ballot is to be repeated. If the tie is still not broken, then the decision is taken by drawing lots.

(5) Extraordinary General Assembly is to be held when the Administrative Board advised so and/or when demanded by at least one third of the members. The administrative unit in charge has to be informed at least ten days prior to the meeting date and this is to be announced by the administrative unit on the official website and via university email accounts of the members.

(6) Tasks, duties and responsibilities of the General Assembly are as follows;

a) To elect full members and substitute members of the Administrative and Supervisory Boards.
b) To resolve on the proposed amendments concerning the operation of the Society.
c) To discuss and resolve on the Annual Activity Plan and Annual Activity Report to be prepared by the Administrative Board.
To discuss and resolve on the report to be prepared by the Supervisory Board.

d) To resolve on membership dismissal proposals.

Society Administrative Board

ARTICLE 15- (1) The Administrative Board is consisted of five full members and two substitute members to be elected by the General Assembly through open/secret ballot based on odd number principle. The Board, in its first meeting, should elect a Chairperson and Vice Chairperson(s). The Chairperson is responsible for all decision taking and executive affairs of the Society.

(2) Tasks, duties and responsibilities of the Administrative Board are as follows;

a) To carry out activities of the Society under responsibility of the Chairperson and under supervision of the Society Counselor.

b) To fulfill duties and exercise authority as described on legal regulations.

c) To organize the date, venue and agenda of General Assembly meetings and make an announcement thereof at least fifteen days prior to the meeting.

c) To carry out procedures related to membership subscription/resignation and dismissals decided by the General Assembly; to submit updated member lists to the administrative unit in charge.

d) To obtain necessary permissions related to the events and activities to be organized by the Society with the approval of the Society Counselor.

e) To submit the list of members who are elected to the Annual Activity Plan and the bodies of the Society with the approval of the Society Counselor, including their credentials, positions, academic and contact information, in fifteen days at the latest to the administrative unit in charge following the General Assembly to be held in the first six weeks of Fall Semester, at the beginning of each Academic Year.

f) To submit the Annual Activity Report to the administrative unit in charge, with the approval of the Society Counselor, in fifteen days at the latest following the General Assembly to be held in fifteen days at the end of Spring Semester of each Academic Year.

(3) Administrative Board proceedings are recorded at the Minute Book of the Board. Decisions not recorded at the Minute Book have no validity.

(4) The Administrative Board is liable to meet at least once every two months. A quorum is sought for the meeting and for decision taking. In the event of a tie, the Chairperson shall have a casting vote.

(5) In cases when the total number of members at the Administrative Board, including substitute members, drops below 4, the Administrative Board Chairperson shall convene an extraordinary General Assembly meeting with the assent of the Society Counselor and with the approval of the Commission Chairperson.
Society Supervisory Board

ARTICLE 16- (1) Supervisory Board is consisted of at least three members elected through open or secret ballot based on odd number principle.

(2) Duties and responsibilities of the Supervisory Board are as follows:

   a) To inspect the Administrative Board decisions in terms of compliance with this regulation,

   b) To issue a written warning to the Administrative Board in cases when decisions taken by the Administrative Board are found incompliant with this regulation. To report to the Student Societies Commission with the approval of the Society Counselor in order to resolve the issue if the situation persisted in spite of the warning,

   c) To evaluate written objections against Administrative Board decisions filed by General Assembly members within the framework specified at item (b) above.

   d) To prepare a Supervisory Board Report prior to the General Assembly to be held at the end of each Spring Semester and submit it to the Assembly for the members’ approval.

   d) To discuss dismissal proposals and submit them to the General Assembly for approval.

Termination of Societies and Discontinuation of their Activities

ARTICLE 17- (1) UAB is the exclusive authority for taking decisions on the termination of a Society or suspension of its activities.

(2) Apart from the cases that a society is terminated or suspended by the decision of UAB, General Assemblies, Administrative and Supervisory Boards of societies are considered under suspension in the following cases;

   a) Societies which did not carry out any activity during a year, except for obligatory cases, and which failed to report it with justifiable reasons to the related administrative unit in charge,

   b) Societies which failed to submit reports, member lists and related documentation to the administrative unit in charge including Annual Activity Plans following the election of bodies of the society at the beginning of Fall Semester, for each Academic Year, and the Annual Activity Report to be prepared at the end of each Spring Semester.

   c) In case of suspended societies, the Commission may convene a General Assembly meeting which will be open to entire university or may advise the UAB to terminate the related society.

(3) Societies terminated or suspended by the decision of UAB are obliged to submit the following items to the administrative unit in charge, enclosed with an official petition approved by the Society Counselor, in fifteen days following the termination decision date:

   Minute Book of the Administrative Board, Members Register, Fixtures Ledger, General Assembly minutes, Supervisory Board reports, all types of official correspondence, written/visual documentation as well as all the fixtures.
