SECTION TWO

Scholarships and Discounts

A- Scholarships Awarded During University Admission

ÖSYS (Student Selection and Placement Examination) Admission Scholarship

ARTICLE 5 – (1) This scholarship is to be awarded to students who are admitted to university through ÖSYS scholarship quota.

a) Full scholarship is awarded to students who are placed via full scholarship quota. These students do not pay tuition fees. Among the students coming from provinces other than Ankara; all students who ranked among the first 3,000 in the language grade or the first 30,000 in other grade types have the right to benefit from free dormitory services including accommodation in four-person rooms, breakfast and dinner. Students who are admitted with full scholarship are not entitled to receive any payment in return of disclaiming their dormitory rights. If they wish to claim their rights afterwards, they are to be provided accommodation within the bounds of possibilities.

b) 75% scholarships are to be awarded to students who meet the 75% scholarship criteria and quota. These students are entitled to a 75% tuition fee discount.

c) 50% scholarships are to be awarded to students who meet the 50% scholarship criteria and quota. These students are entitled to a 50% tuition fee discount.

c) 25% scholarships are to be awarded to students who meet the 25% scholarship criteria and quota. These students are entitled to a 25% tuition fee discount.

(2) Concerning the students who have been admitted to the University;

a) Students who have graduated from an undergraduate program of any university are to be registered as self-funded students no matter what is their scholarship status.

b) Students who are already registered at TEDU as self-funded/scholarship students and have been placed again to a program via ÖSYS are to be registered as a self-funded student.

c) Newly acquired rights of the students who have been dismissed from English Language School or an undergraduate program due to failure or expiration of maximum study period but admitted again via ÖSYS are valid.

(3) Students do not apply for ÖSYS Admission Scholarship. This scholarship is to be awarded according to the exam result which is the basis of their current admission.
International Student Scholarship

ARTICLE 6 – (1) This scholarship is to be awarded to international students admitted to undergraduate programs.

(2) The scholarship is offered to students at the admission stage.

(3) Scholarship is offered in 100%, 75%, 50% and 25% ratios.

(4) Scholarships are based on exam/diploma criteria accepted by the University Senate as mentioned in TED University International Student Admission Criteria for Undergraduate Programs.

(5) A 20% discount for full scholarship students and 15% discount for 75% scholarship students applied in TEDU Dormitories for 4-people rooms including breakfast and dinner.

(6) Students do not apply for International Student Scholarship. This scholarship is recommended by the International Programs Commission within the framework of international student admission criteria and decided by the University Administrative Board.

Lateral Transfer Scholarship

ARTICLE 7 – (1) This scholarship is to be awarded to lateral transfer students at admission stage.

(2) Students are offered full or partial scholarship in several ratios.

(3) Scholarship ratios of inter- and intra-institutional lateral transfer students who have been admitted via ÖSYS are to be determined based on the equivalent scholarship ratio for the ÖSYS score of the target program in the year of their registration.

(4) Remaining scholarship period for intra-institutional lateral transfer students is calculated by extracting the number of semesters of study from the total scholarship period.

(5) Scholarship ratios of international students that had intra-institutional lateral transfer are based on international student admission criteria for the year of their registration.

(6) Scholarship ratios of international students that had intra-institutional lateral transfer are based on exam/diploma scores they have submitted during application.

(7) Scholarship period of intra-institutional lateral transfer students is determined based on remaining normal study period as of the semester of transfer.

International Diploma/ Certificate/ Exam Scholarships

ARTICLE 8 – (1) Scholarships mentioned in this article are to be awarded to students who have been admitted to University via ÖSYS or via transfer with ÖSYS score from another higher education institution, and who have fulfilled the required scores and submitted the below-mentioned diploma/international final exam results.

(4) Applications are to be evaluated by the related unit and resolved by the provider upon proposal by the Scholarship Commission.

SECTION THREE

General Principles, Scholarship Commission, Continuation and Cancellation of Scholarships and Scholarship Students who are on Semester Leave.

General Principles

ARTICLE 16 – (1) Students can benefit from multiple scholarships simultaneously offered during university admission provided that they have met the required conditions.

(2) Students who are entitled to receive more than two additional scholarships can choose the highest one. A maximum of two additional scholarships can be taken, excluding the Part-Time Work Scholarship. These additional scholarships are the two highest rated scholarships awarded.

(3) Total ratio of tuition fee based scholarships (including ÖSYS admission scholarship) cannot exceed 100%.

(4) Tuition fee based scholarships are valid for credit limits designated by the University Senate at the beginning of the semester. Students taking courses above the designated limit are liable to pay an extra tuition fee whether they are on scholarship or not.

(5) Scholarship periods are maximum six years for students beginning their study at the English Language School, and maximum five years for the students who are beginning at their undergraduate program except for the scholarships which are valid for one year.

(6) Students who are registered as “special student” are not eligible to receive any scholarship.

(7) In case of misleading information provided by the scholarship student, ongoing scholarships can be cancelled, a refund can be requested and a disciplinary proceeding can be filed against the student.

Scholarship Commission

ARTICLE 17 – (1) The Scholarship Commission is presided by a lecturer to be assigned by the Rector. Commission consists of the following TEDU members.

a) Two lecturers

b) Head of the Registrar’s Office Director or representative of the Financial Affairs Department

d) Scholarship officer of the Registrar’s Office.

e) Director or representative of the International Programs Office.

(2) The Commission implements the procedures related to the selection of students to be awarded scholarship, as well as allocation and termination of the scholarships.

General Principles about the Cancellation of Scholarships

ARTICLE 18 – (1) Scholarships are to be cancelled in the cases given below and the students are to attend the program under non-scholarship (self-funded) status.

a) For students under self-funded status or on partial scholarship; failing to complete the tuition fee payment for the current semester

b) For English Language School students; failing to attend courses for two successive years

c) For undergraduate students; no course registration has been completed or no advisor approval received for the current semester.

d) For undergraduate students; having received FX grade for all registered courses in two successive semesters.

(3) Procedures to be followed in cases when students receive a disciplinary sanction within the framework of the provisions of Higher Education Institutions Student Discipline Regulations are given below:

a) Students, who have received a suspension penalty for one or two semesters for the first time, forfeit all scholarships mentioned in this regulation except for the scholarships awarded during admission. Semesters spent on suspension are to be deducted from the maximum period of study and of the scholarship. Students are liable to complete the full tuition fee payment for the semesters on suspension. These amounts cannot be counted towards tuition fee payment for the subsequent semesters.

b) Students who have received a suspension penalty for one or two semesters for the second time forfeit all scholarships without exception.

c) Students who have received any of the following disciplinary penalties; warning, reprimand and suspension from one week to one month, for a total of three times forfeit all scholarships mentioned in this regulation except for the scholarships awarded during admission.

(4) Students in unregistered status forfeit all scholarships but they may attend the program in self-funded status provided that they have not exceeded the maximum period of study and renewed their registration.

(5) Scholarships which require specific academic success condition are also stated in this regulation.
Scholarship Students who are on Semester Leave

ARTICLE 19 – (1) Time spent on semester leave is counted towards the maximum period of scholarship. However if the leave is due to a force majeure, the University Administrative Board will decide whether to count this duration towards the maximum period of scholarship or not.
